KARELIA COSTALES

Based in Los Angeles, Karelia Costales was born in Cuba in September 1993. Originated from a musical family, she was influenced by her mother, Xiomara Mendez, a well-known singer in Cuba. Her father, Roberto Costales, was the manager/producer of them both. Karelia was for the first time exposed to the stage to perform alongside her mother at the age of 10, where she discovered her true passion for singing and performing. Costales then went to music school to study the Bass and was also introduced to acting. Wanting to step out of her parents shadow, Costales then 16, joined this talent company in Baraders where she was singing, dancing, acting on the biggest stages in Cuba. At the age of 18, Karelia left Cuba to go on tour with a Cuban Band in Vietnam. For 5 years, she then toured around South East Asia: Vietnam, Cambodia, Singapore, Malaysia..In the winter of 2016, Costales moved to Canada. She had one goal, which was to make a name for herself and prove to everyone that no matter the challenge, you can dream big and achleve anything you put your mind into. That is how she participated in the televised show "La Voz US" in Mlaml In 2020 and also "Canada's Got Talent*" in 2022. Karelia is currently working on her first EP project.
